New President Addresses Parliament, Suggesting Constructive Policy.

Pekin, China, Aug. 1.—Parilament was convened today. It was attended by 100 delegates, 100 more than was necessary for a quorum. President Li Yuan Hung, after taking the oath, addressed the legislators, urging them to immediately take up non-partisan and reconstructive work. The president, who was not accompanied by a police guard, wore European civilian attire. After hearing the president's speech, parliament adjourned Indefinitely. It probably will be reconvened with two weeks if party differences can be reconciled.
